ZPID-Symposium "Health Literacy Across the Life Span"
Friday, March 10, 2017, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., at the University of Trier/Germany.

9:00-9:10  Anne-Kathrin Mayer & Gabriel Schui (ZPID): Welcome address

9:10-10:30  Psychological perspectives on health literacy
(1) Renate Soellner (University of Hildesheim, Germany, Institute for Psychology): Health literacy - a concept map
(2) Sonia Lippke (Jacobs University Bremen, Germany, Health Psychology & Behavioral Medicine Unit): Facilitating health literacy and behavior change by a computer-tailored intervention based on a stage theory

10:30-10:50  Coffee break

10:50-12:10  Perspectives on health literacy from communication and information sciences
(3) Maija-Leena Huotari (University of Oulu/Finland, Information Studies): Cognitive authority and health information literacy

12:10-14:00  Lunch break (“Monte Petris”, Trier)

14:00-15:20  Health literacy in childhood and adolescence
(4) Orkan Okan (University of Bielefeld, Germany, Centre for Prevention and Intervention in Childhood and Adolescence): Measuring health literacy in primary school-age children
(5) Christiane Firnges (Robert Koch Institute, Berlin, Germany): Adolescents' health literacy self-reports - insights from the MOHLAA - survey

15:20-15:40  Coffee break

15:40-17:00  Health information literacy in adulthood
(6) Anne-Kathrin Mayer (ZPID, Trier): Assessing health literacy by performance tests: The Health Information Literacy Knowledge Test (HILK)
(7) Veronika Kuhberg-Lasson (ZPID, Trier): Determinants of health information literacy in vocational school students: The role of personal beliefs

18:00  Farewell evening (“Blesius Garten”, Trier-Olewig)